

IMOS Recognition and Thanks

IMOS acknowledge the Traditional Custodians and Elders of the land and sea on which we work and observe as Australia's first marine scientists and carers of Sea Country. We pay our respects to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples past and present.

A decade of serving IMOS in a leadership role

Simone Cosoli

Daniel Ierodiaconou

IMOS Community Member recognition

We thank all of you for your effort and support of IMOS through the Facilities and Nodes. IMOS is only successful because of your effort.

We would like to specifically recognize a few people for having gone above and beyond in 2024.

IMOS Community Member recognition

Dave Hughes

For his work scoping and coordinating the near real-time transition for the National Reference Stations

IMOS Community Member recognition

Claire Davies

For her work coordinating the Biogeochemical Steering Committee, ensuring data is delivered efficiently

IMOS Community Member recognition

Mark Doubell

For his significant voluntary efforts into a number of IMOS Facilities, Steering Committees and supporting the development of step change elements and strategic plans

IMOS Community Member recognition

Mike Cuttler

For his efforts in organising the national coordination and deployment plans for the new IMOS Coastal Wave Buoys Project

IMOS Community Member recognition

Salman Saeed Khan

For his leadership of the Forum for Operational
Oceanography Surface
Waves Working Group

IMOS Community Member recognition

Daniel Ierodiasconou

For his efforts in helping design the CoastRI bid and initial elements and ensuring the approach creates societal benefit

2026 awards

In 2026 we would like to focus on recognizing technical staff efforts. We will be calling for submissions from the community to help identify candidates so please be ready to help us celebrate your teams.

